Dear Arthur, Shirley & Helen,

I am writing you all to report on the family history research I have been working on. I have corresponded with Arthur in the past, but thought it made sense to write Shirley & Helen for the other two branches, and was able to find your addresses on the internet.

As Arthur knows, I have been trying to find out as much as I can about our family and see who fits in where. Because of our multiple relationships, you are related to my grandmother's entire family, making you nearer relatives than you otherwise would be. (Max Rodecker and Leslie Liepman, my great-grandfather, were first cousins; Esther Rodecker and Irene Sternberg Liepman, my great-grandmother, were first cousins too. And Leslie & Irene met through the Rodeckers. And Frank married Irene's sister Sadie on top of it.)

I was spurred to write you all because I have had so much information come in in the past few months that I feel as though I have really been making progress. I discovered that your parents' first cousin's daughter lived about a half block from my parents in St. Louis and I had gone all through school with a cousin without ever knowing it; and I was contacted over the internet by a cousin in LA who is researching our family as well and was able to really fill in a lot of information. As a result, the picture is slowly becoming scarily complete.

As though that were not enough, I have fallen in with a group of people on the internet researching the families that came from Soetern and Bosen, home of the Baums and Sternbergs. The Mormons have microfilmed the vital records from those towns back to the Napoleonic era and one of the people has transcribed the information and actually posted it on the internet. From it, we have been able to piece together lots of information. I am even in contact with a man related to you on the Michel side, who explained to me how Gilbert & Catherine were related to Bernice and Alvin (before they married each other). The Baum family was very large, but filled with intermarriages. Evidently they even had a reputation for it among the other families. I have turned up about 17 cases of Baum cousins intermarrying, not including relationships like your parents'.

At any rate, I seem to have become a repository of information. But there is still more that I would like to know to complete the project, which I hope you can help me with. Between birthday books, vital records, censuses, and old newspaper articles I have had a fair amount of luck, but still would appreciate some guidance. And I am still trying to find pictures of as many people as possible. After searching for a couple of years, I was able to find a picture of your Baum great-grandparents - with your cousins who live a half block from my parents house. The enclosed photocopy is another picture they had, of some of the Baums probably taken in Aurora. We were able to identify a couple of people, but I was hoping perhaps one of you could help with the others.

There are other bits of information that would be helpful. I have found the dates for Wallace and Ruth's marriage (1/2/1918) and Gilbert & Bernice's (2/12/1924) but have not found the date or location for Alvin and Catherine. And I have very little if anything on your generation. I have talked to people like Helen Schnurmacher, for example, who helped a little; Lloyd MacFadyen's grandmother's book (Selma Viereck Loewen) had Gilbert and Bernice's wedding in it; but of course the best sources for information are yourselves.

Please pass this along to your siblings, children, etc., to anyone who may be interested. I am eager to hear from anyone who wants to know what I have turned up and to hear more about you all. On level it seems like a very big family, but when you account for the double relationships and really look at who is around, there aren't actually all that many people around.

I am enclosing the current versions of the family trees and some of what I have turned up. I have made a couple of trips to Topeka which has been a great resource because some of the Liepmans made some donations to the Kansas Historical Society. I am now living in Columbia, where the Missouri Historical Society is located, another great resource for old newspapers.

I should add the Loewen side (your great-grandmother Tina Rodecker's family) has been getting the most attention in the past month or two. Lloyd MacFadyen, whose grandparents were Loewen first cousins and first cousins of your grandfather Max, has become interested in it all and is contacting all the southern Californian Loewens and Vierecks. He found me over the internet from a posting I had done on a genealogy site that I was looking for Loewens. He has some old artifacts, like your great-great grandparents' wedding picture (Aaron and Johanna Loewen). Because of his work, we have been able to find and account for pretty much every single one of Max's first cousins and their families.

Over on the Baum side, your grandmother's brother Jacob Baum who lived in Oklahoma had one son who had one daughter, who went to Washington U. for college and ended up staying in St. Louis and lives a half block from my parents. I have known the family since 7th grade because I went to school with their daughter. It never would have occurred to me that they were related, it wasn't until a few months ago when I spoke to Helen Schnurmacher that she put us all together. Now Barbara Baum Feldacker is working on it all too, on that side.

Please use my parents' address for correspondence. My lease is coming up and I never know whether I am going to renew until the last minute.

If you are really interested, I would be happy to send more along. The hope ultimately is to really turn this into a compilation for all the relatives so we can know who was and is who, now that we are so thoroughly spread out. When my grandparents would travel, they would always look up the relatives, but it has become much harder now. Perhaps this will help us.

I look forward from hearing from you all and hope it finds you well. Anything you can add would be greatly appreciated by us all. The most helpful things, from my perspective, if not the others, would be for copies of pictures of your parents and the previous generations, and any missing dates and locations.

Regards,
David Meyer

M. LIEPMAN, merchant, a native of the Prussian Province of Posen, was born June 12, 1841. He was educated in the mercantile business, and in 1860, he emigrated to New York. There, with $14, he became a pack peddler, sic going through New York and New Jersey. About 1863, he was found working for $6 per month; to better himself he moved to Sedalia, Mo., and clerked for Steinberg & Rosenbaum, merchants, being paid $40 at first, and running up to $125 per month. He then went to Warrensburg, Mo., and established a branch house for the firm, and another at Pleasant Hill, Mo., finally at Lawrence. While at Warrensburg, he joined the State Militia, and was in Capt. Grover's company during Gen. Blount's raid against Price. In 1866, he arrived in Lawrence, Kan., and in March, 1867, came to Fort Scott, Kan., opening a huckster and tobacco shop, but this was for a few months only, when he bought in his present place, buying out Weil Bros., and going in partnership with Mr. D. Lowen; this was in 1868; however, in 1869 the firm became M. Liepman & Bro. Their first store building was only 19x60, and now it is 39x90, two floors. Mr. Liepman has always been interested in public affairs, and desires the advancement of the welfare of the city. He was elected to the City Council in 1876, re-elected in 1878, and again in 1880, and was President of the honorable body for three years. He took a prominent part in the settlement of the city's indebtedness in 1879-80, and when the normal school movement was first inaugurated, was the Treasurer of the same, and also Board of Trustees of the Kansas Normal School at Fort Scott. In 1868, he was married to Miss Sarah Loewen, of St. Louis, Mo.; they have a family of four children. Mr. Liepman belongs to the Masonic Order and the I. O. O. F.

J. RODECKER, of the firm of Rodecker & Cohn, clothing and gents' furnishing goods, north Main street, is a native of New York City, and was born in 1841. He commenced working for Levy Brothers & Company, New York, and came to Leavenworth, Kan., 1863, where he continued in their employ until coming to Fort Scott in 1866. He established a clothing house here in October of that year; the firm was Rodecker & Cohn; they occupied the Roach building from 1866 to 1873, then moving into the Blackett building, where they had not been long, he was burned out and he moved into the store called the Salamander, because the only two stores left after the fire of 1873, were burned, leaving his alone. He then bought the building he now occupies, of William Hack, and moved in in 1877. He has now 66 feet frontage and 80 feet deep. In 1872, he married Miss Loewen. They have three boys. Mr. Rodecker is a member of the School Board.

TAFT PARTY LEAVES TOKIO

KOBE, THE NEXT PLACE SECRETARY AND STAFF WILL VISIT.

ARE GIVEN A GRAND SEND-OFF

Tokio, July 29.—Secretary Taft and party left for Kyoto by special train this evening, amid a most enthusiastic send-off from all the distinguished parties connected with the court and civil, military and naval departments; also from the bankers and other mercantile representatives. In fact, all the typical representatives of the city who had received the party upon its arrival, again assembled at the Shambashi railway station. The Ladies' Relief Association which presented flowers to Miss Roosevelt was especially well represented. Among the delegates of the association was Madame Togo, wife of the great admiral whose quiet, unostentatious manner attracts no small attention, as reflecting prominent characteristics of her distinguished husband. Hearty cheers and banzais were joined in by the usually undemonstrative men of rank and position as the train pulled out of the station. Long before the hour of departure the streets near the station were lined with delegates from different sections of the city, holding high lan-

J. Rodecker Died Suddenly Last Night at the Home of His Son in Carterville—Funeral Here.

J. Rodecker, the veteran clothier and pioneer resident, was stricken with apoplexy at 10:30 last night at the home of his son, R. M. Rodecker, at Carterville, and he died a half hour later without regaining consciousness. The sudden death of one of Fort Scott's retired business men, came as a surprise to his many friends in this city last night and it will be a severe shock to them, as well as to the family. The news of his death was announced to the family here a little after 11 o'clock last night. The deceased had not been sick and this makes his demise doubly hard to bear. Mr. Rodecker went to Carterville Thursday with his grandson, Wallace Rodecker, who had been here, visiting, to pay his son's family a visit. When he left, Mr. Rodecker was in his usual good spirits and there were not an ache nor a pain in his body. Last night he was sitting on the front porch at the home of his son, when he complained of severe pains in his chest. He walked about the yard, hoping that the air would allay the pains, but this only tended to increase them and he returned to the house. Sitting down in a chair he became unconscious and a physician was called, but his condition was past medical assistance and although everything that medical science could suggest was administered, he died at 11 o'clock. The announcement of his death was communicated to his family here. Frank Rodecker and L. M. Ljepman went to Carterville this morning to accompany the remains home.

Mr. Rodecker was a man of an iron constitution, rugged and apparently healthy and the news of his streets near the station were lined with delegates from different sections of the city, holding high lanterns bearing their respective marks.

It is seldom that any foreign party has received so brilliant and hearty send-off as that accompanying Secretary Aaft and another visit from him is anticipated with great delight.

The feeling that more could not be done to entertain the party, owing to the shortness of its stay is universal. Secretary Taft and party will spend the night at Kyoto, where the steamer will be taken for Kobe.

Nagasaki, July 29.—Secretary Taft and party arrived at Kyoto today. The governor, mayor and other officials, representatives of the Women's War societies, 1500 students and a great crowd of people greeted the visitors. The band played an American anthem as the train was entering the station. Miss Alice Roosevelt was presented with many flowers. They will proceed to Kobe tomorrow.

Outside of the immediate family no person in the city feels the death of the late J. Rodecker more keenly than does D. Prager. When he heard of the death of his almost lifelong friend his grief knew no bounds. The two were "old chums" it might be said, and for the last ten years were inseparable. Wherever Mr. Rodecker was Mr. Prager was also. They attended the ball games together, walked a mile or two every day together and were almost continually in each other's company. Is it any wonder that Mr. Prager was deeply affected? Mr. Rodecker took his grandson, Wallace Rodecker, to his home in Carterville that he might spend his birthday with his parents. He died on his grandson's birthday.

Mrs. Martha Renberger, aged 64 years, and one of the early residents of Kansas, died this morning at 6 o'clock at the home of her daughter Mrs. Dr. A. J. Woods, of Fulton. The cause of death was typhoid fever, following a sickness of two weeks. The deceased was well known in the northern part of the county. Lately she had been making her home with her daughter in Fulton. The funeral will be held at the Methodist church

Mr. Rodecker was a man of an iron constitution, rugged and apparently healthy and the news of his death is hard to believe. The deceased was well and favorably known all over the city and everybody who knew him intimately, was his friend. The family have the deepest sympathy of the entire community in their sad hour of affliction.

J. Rodecker was of Jewish birth and a native of New York City. He was born in 1841, and was 64 years of age at the time of his death. At an early age he commenced to work for Levy Brothers in New York and grew up in the clothing business. In 1863, having made a little money in the east and desirous of going into business for himself in the west which he thought afforded greater opportunities for a man of his age and ability, he came to Kansas and located in Leavenworth. In Leavenworth he continued to work for the New York firm, but in 1866 he sought the advantages afforded in Fort Scott and came here. In October of the same year he established a clothing and gents' furnishing house in this city, forming a partnership with the late Samuel Cohn, who died recently in New York, the firm name being Rodecker & Cohn. They were in business on Market street at that time but in 1873 they were burned out. In later years Mr. Rodecker purchased the building where the firm of Rodecker Bros., is now located and for many years occupied it, carrying one of the largest stocks of clothing in the city. At one time the deceased was quite a wealthy man, but he met financial reverses some years ago, at which time he turned his business over to his two sons, F. S. Rodecker and H. A. Rodecker, who have since been prospering. For six or eight years he has been leading a retired life. In 1872 the deceased married Miss Loewen and to this union there were born three sons, all of whom survive him. The deceased is also survived by a bereaved widow.

The remains will arrive in this city this evening and will be taken to the family home, corner of Oak and Eddy streets. The date of the funeral has not been arranged yet, pending word from relatives in the east.

A large party left this afternoon for Rich Hill, Mo., to attend the Rodecker-Baum nuptials, which occur there this evening in the Odd Fellows hall, at 9 o'clock. The party consisted of Mrs. J. Rodecker, Mrs. M. Liepman, Mrs. J. Bamberger, Mrs. S. Cohn, Mrs. Gottlieb, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Heine-man, and Mr. and Mrs. E. Rodecker and son, of Mansfield, Ohio, Miss Pearl Cohn, Miss Birdie Cohn, Miss Tillie Aronson and Miss Jessie Gottlieb, and Messrs. Leslie Liepman and Frank Rodecker. A number of others will go over at 7:15 this evening.

G. D. Perrigo and C. E. Hulett arrived home from the Pittsburg tennis tournament morning. Perrigo played Boaz, of Pittsburg, yesterday afternoon and was beaten by a close score. Hulett played a Joplin man and won, giving him the victory in every single he played. They could not remain there to contest for the tournament honors to-day on account of business engagements. They met some excellent players and are well pleased with their achievements.

Boring for Oil in Barton County, Mo. [Nevada Mo., Post Aug. 21.]

A gentleman who is versed in oil business and who lately visited Doyle'sport, Barton county, two miles from the Vernon line, informed the Post to-day that boring for oil will be begun there to-morrow by Iowa parties, who have optioned land in that locality.

The contract calls for a hole 1,500 feet deep. The Post's informant is firmly of the opinion that oil will be found. About 125 feet from where the drill goes down is an old stock well from which comes with the water a black oily substance similar to lubricating oil. Our informant says that from a gallon of this crude stuff could be refined a pint of as fine petroleum oil as could be found in Pennsylvania. He examined this field some two years ago with a view of drilling. He further believes that oil in paying quantities will be found on some of the border Missouri counties. That considerable drilling has been going on in Kansas, oil being found and holes plugged, but the real oil field in this section is yet to be developed, and when it is, it is very probable that it will be piped to Kansas City.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

By local application, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear, There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucus lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed for ever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of

Yes, they were all relations. Esther Baum was my 3C3R & Bernice was my 4C2R. This connection goes back like this: Esther's father was Ludwig Baum, my 2C4R- his father was Michael Baum my 1C5R- his father was Ludwig Baum who was married to Karolina Sender my 5G Aunt- her father was Sender Moises my GGGGG grandfather. Bernice married Gilbert Michel who was my 2C2R. Gilbert's father & mother were Max Michel (my 1C3R) & Julia DeRoy. Max Michel's father was Moses Michel (1842-1914) who was GGG Uncle & born in Merxheim, Germany. Moses' father was Goetschlick (Gottschalk) Michel (1802-1883) who was my GGG grandfather. All the Michel family was originally from Merxheim. I should send you my charts someday so you can see all the familial connections. Gilbert Michel as you know was born in Detroit & died in Southfield, Michigan in 1982. Gilbert & Bernice were cousins also. Gilbert's father, Max Michel was born in Chicago in 1870 & died in Detroit in 1941. Let me know if you have any other questions regarding this branch. Be well

UNCLE BAUM IS DEAD.

At his residence, west Park Avenue, in this city at six o'clock Saturday evening, July 9th, Ludwig Baum, aged 61 years and eight months.

Uncle Baum, as he was familiarly called, was born at Bosen, Germany, Oct. 23rd 1827, moved to this country forty-two years ago, lived at St. Louis, Paris, Shelbina and Kirksville this state, and moved to Paola, Kansas, some sixteen years or more ago. He opened the London Store here some 4 years ago and moved with his family here three years ago, where he has since resided and conducted one of the largest businesses in Rich Hill. The editor of this paper first knew Uncle Baum some fifteen years ago and he had not changed in appearance, being quite stooped, with white hair and beard.

He was only known to be respected for his many sterling qualities of head and heart. Although an Israelite, he was a liberal contributor to all worthy and charitable calls, and remarkable, he never lost that christian spirit which shines in the darkness. When goaded or treated ill by competitors, he always had an apology, excused them and spoke kindly of his enemies.

Some seven months ago he began to consult physicians, spending several weeks in Kansas City. He has been confined to his home for about five months, where he was watched over and every care administered by a sainted wife, who had been his companion for forty years. He passed quietly to rest Saturday evening, his body reduced to a mere shadow, skeleton. The remains were taken to St. Louis Sunday night and interred in the Jewish cemetery with the rites of his church. The body, remains of good old Uncle Baum, lain to rest beside those of his family who have gone before. He leaves a devoted wife, five daughters and two sons to mourn their loss. Men may come and men may go, but none will be more highly respected, living, or universally regretted to see die than Uncle Baum. The bereaved have our sincere sympathy in their sorrow. Peace to his ashes and rest to the weary soul.

Epstein was exceptionally gracious and in good voice. The audience would not let her off the stage and she had to sing a few encores. Mr. O. Leonard read Morris Rosenfeld's letter of greeting very impressively and also recited the stricken poet's poem "The Sweat Shop" in English and received tremendous applause. Mr. M. L. Glass recited in Yiddish the "Blinder Bettler" which was greatly appreciated, and after great applause, he recited one of his own pieces, "The Yiddische Kugel" which provoked considerable mirth. The financial report is not yet entirely complete, but we are safe to say that the profit will run from $300 to $400. After the concert a grand march was artistically conducted by Prof. D.
